The body was that of a man about forty years old, of stout build, and weighed about 160 pounds. It was dressed in a dark coat and trousers, dark stock-logs and gatters.

in a dark coat and trousers, dark stockings and gaiters.

The body of another drowned man was found by Policeman John Caroten, of the Steamboat patrol, floating in the East River at the foot of Beekman street this morning.

The man was apparently about forty-five years old, and weighed about 170 pounds. The only clothing on the body was a pair of gaiters and gray stockings.

There will be no railroad on that part of One Hundred and Tenth street and one by the Boulevard line, to lay lous to preserve the thoroughfare as a promenade and driveway. They enlisted the aid of Corporation Counsel Clark, who took hold of the matter and drafted a bill which the Legislature passed and Gov. Flower has just signed, exempting One Hundred and Tenth street from use for a railroad.

The law prohibits the laying of tracks on Cathedral Parkway and permits the use of One Hundred and Twelfth street and part of Manhattan avenue instead. The Ninth avenue line will cross One Hundred and Tenth street, go up Manhattan avenue to and through One Hundred and Twelfth street to connect with the Sixth avenue line, if the plans of the Traction Company are carried out.

is to be known as the 'Church of the People.'

The new building will not be completed until next Winter, and in the mean time the mission will have temporary quarters in the neighborhood.

To celebrate the closing of the old Mission House there will be a reception Wednesday afternoon, May 16. There will be singing and recitations by the children, under the direction of Rev. A. K. Sanford, superintendent and pastor of the Mission. Hishop Andrews, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, will preside.

Missionary work in the Five Points district, of which the Mission is the outgrowth, was begun in 1850 by the New York Ladies' Home Missionary Society, and although at that time the district was one of the very worst in the city the work of the charitable women has prospered and brought about a wonderful reform in that neighborhood. Today theirs is one of the leading charities in the city.
